Viviana Straps are the safest and most comfortable way for talent to wear Wireless Pocket Transmitters. They are made from an amazingly slim, breathable and soft fabric made in Milan, Italy. Handcrafted with extreme care using the most modern materials & design techniques based on ideas of sound pros with years of experience in the art of securing wireless transmitters on talent.

Viviana Straps are ideal for transmitter mounting on film sets, reality TV, sports and stage performances to name a few. The universal built-in pocket stretches to securely accommodate virtually any modern pocket transmitter. Dual cable-keepers keep your lavalier's excess cable tidy on either side of the pocket. All Viviana Straps feature invisible overlap Velcro fasteners and include a Velcro strip for securing the transmitter in the pocket for complete assurance in the most demanding sports and "reality" situations.

There are two series of Viviana Straps - Original and eXtreme in BLACK and BEIGE colors
